STOCKS.

The stock market this morning was firmer although for a short time after opening some stocks exhibited a weakness and fell off. In the general list there was an advance of 1@2 percent. After mid day there was a slight reaction and during the afternoon the market was feverish, changing frequently from firmness to degression. afternoon the market was feverish, changing frequently from firmness to depression and finally closing at lowest prices of today for many shares. Trunk line and coal shares generally closed a little higher than yesterday. Denver was weak and stock to-day dropped 7 per cent. The decline in late dealings was attributed to the dearness of money.
